The Office of the Secretary of State received a draft ballot title from the Attorney General on January 12, 2005, for initiative petition #10, proposing a statutory amendment, for the General Election of November 7, 2006.

The draft ballot title is as follows:

ELIMINATES PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RIGHT TO FORM UNIONS, ASSOCIATIONS TO COLLECTIVELY BARGAIN, RESOLVE GRIEVANCES WITH EMPLOYERS

RESULT OF "YES" VOTE: "Yes" vote eliminates right of state, local public employees to form unions, associations to represent them in collective bargaining, resolving employment-related grievances with employers.

RESULT OF "NO" VOTE: "No" vote retains law giving public employees the right to form unions, associations to represent them in collective bargaining, resolving employment-related grievances with employers.

SUMMARY: Current law gives public employees the right to form, join and participate in labor unions and associations of their choosing; those labor organizations represent the public employees in collective bargaining with their public employers on matters concerning employment relations, including: compensation, hours, vacation, sick leave, and grievance procedures. Currently, public employers must negotiate with employees' chosen labor organization and enter into contracts to resolve employment-relations disputes; a public employee may authorize payroll deductions, including union/association dues. Measure prohibits public employees' unions, associations from representing employees in collective bargaining with public employers; prohibits employers from entering collective-bargaining negotiations, agreements with labor organizations; prohibits payroll deductions for dues. Existing collective bargaining agreements are not altered; measure prohibits extensions, changes, and future agreements. Other provisions.

Chief Petitioner(s): Bill Sizemore, PO Box 343, Beavercreek, OR 97004 and Grace I. Sizemore, PO Box 66921, Portland, OR 97290.

Copies of the text of this initiative are available at Room 141, State Capitol for $.25. Written requests for copies with your remittance of $1.00 prepaid, should be addressed to: Elections Division, Room 141 State Capitol, Salem, OR 97310-0722.

There now follows an appeal period of 10 business days during which any member of the public may submit written comments which address the specific legal standards a ballot title must meet to the Secretary of State's office. This period ends January 27, 2005. Comments must be addressed to: Elections Division, Room 141 State Capitol, Salem, OR 97310-0722; fax (503) 373-7414.

The Secretary of State will deliver all written comments to the Attorney General. If comments are received, the Attorney General shall issue the certified ballot title not later than the 10th business day after receiving the comments from the Secretary of State. If no comments are received, the Attorney General shall issue the certified ballot title not later than the fifth business day after the deadline for submitting comments.

In addition, during this ballot title comment period, the Secretary of State will also seek statements from interested persons regarding whether or not a proposed initiative petition complies with procedural constitutional requirements for submission of proposed initiative petitions. The Secretary will consider the information provided in the statements received from interested persons. If you wish to comment, this period ends January 27, 2005. Comments must be addressed to: Elections Division, Room 141 State Capitol, Salem, OR 97310-0722; fax (503) 373-7414.

Any elector who is dissatisfied with the ballot title certified by the Attorney General, and who timely submitted written comments which addressed the specific legal standards a ballot title must meet, may petition the Oregon Supreme Court seeking a different title. This appeal must be filed not later than the 10th business day after the Attorney General certifies a ballot title to the Secretary of State.

The required number of signatures for placement on the 2006 general election ballot is 75,630. These signatures must be filed in this office not later than July 7, 2006.
